

Department of Sociology
Salesian College (Autonomous) Siliguri Campus

Department Profile: Bachelor of Arts in Sociology is a four-year degree programme with the possibility of completing the fourth year with research if a particular student secures 75% CGPA in the previous examinations.

Vision: The department aims to provide professionalism on the lines of Sociological teaching reminding to its learner's how diverse the subject is and how human pattern of thought process and knowledge is most invariably influenced by social, political and economic structures, the primary backbone of what frames the discipline's laboratory

Mission: The department shall engage in creating and encouraging quality teaching and conducive atmosphere for creative thinking and impart profound disciplinary knowledge with an interdisciplinary knowledge and bandwidth to the learners in order to make them engage in research, social activities, social forums, writing skills and creative thinking.

Courses Offered in Sociology Department

Semester	Course code	Course Title
I	SOCMAJ101	Introduction to Sociology-I
I	SOCMAJ102	Indian Society -I
II	SOCMAJ201	Introduction to Sociology -II
III	SOCMAJ202	Indian Society -II
IV	SOCMAJ203	Social Stratification
IV	SOCMAJ204	Sociology of Kinship
V	SOCMAJ301	Society and Culture in Eastern Himalayas
V	SOCMAJ302	Sociology of Social Movement
VI	SOCMAJ305	Political Sociology
VI	SOCMAJ306	Sociology of Globalization
II	SOCMDC201	Disaster and Social Crisis
II	SOCSEC101	Visual Sociology